Media Release

“Central Bank released report”

The Central Bank is assuring the public that information relating to all licensed financial institutions it supervises is subject to strict secrecy and confidentiality provisions in accordance with the Central Bank Act, Chapter 79:02. Our employees are also subject to these secrecy and confidentiality provisions.

Central Bank releases regulatory and other documents pertaining to supervision of all licensed financial institutions, only to duly authorized officers of these institutions. Central Bank does not release regulatory information on any licensed financial institution to the media or general public.

Recent media stories, on the conduct of the former Board of a licensed financial institution, purporting to have originated from and attributed to Central Bank, are inaccurate.
