

May 09, 2019

“Ideas for the Future” University Essay Competition

Registration open from May 06 – July 31, 2019

We are pleased to announce the launch of the “Ideas for the Future” University Essay Competition, which is a collaborative effort between the CAF - Development Bank of Latin America (celebrating 50 years) and The Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago (celebrating 55 years). The goal of the initiative is to engage Caribbean university students, and compile their thoughts about what their countries will be like in the next 30 years, including the main obstacles and challenges, as well as the proposals on how to deal with them.

The competition runs from May 06, 2019 with a deadline for submitting the essays on July 31, 2019 at 11:59 pm (EDT). Please follow the link below for details on submission and awards.

<https://www.caf.com/en/currently/news/2019/05/registration-for-the-ideas-for-the-future-university-essay-competition-is-now-open/>

-END-