

10 September 2019

“Then and Now”, Central Bank through the years exhibition is open!

September 9 – 20, 2019

Yesterday, the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago opened its “Then and Now”, Central Bank Through the Years exhibition. Featuring various aspects of Central Banking, past and present, the exhibition takes you on a journey through the years 1964 to 2019 with displays of currency, publications, vide and photo presentations and even replicas of offices of past and present.

Governor Hilaire briefly addressed staff gathered at the Opening Ceremony, reminding us that our “now” would be the “then” of the not so distant future and with changes occurring as rapidly as they do imagine what iPads and iPhones would look like in the future.

This exhibition, in commemoration of the Bank’s 55th Anniversary to be celebrated on December 12, 2019, is opened to the public and will run until September 20, 2019 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Central Bank lobby and Museum foyer.

Join us for this unique Central Banking experience!

Mrs. Nicole Crooks addresses staff at the Opening Ceremony, while Governor Hilaire admires a collage in the background.

With the cut of a ribbon the Exhibition is open.

Dr. Sookram, Deputy Governor takes a look at the Security display.

Staff interacts with the exhibits.