

CENTRAL BANK OF TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

What's In Your Pocket?

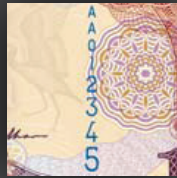

SEVENTEEN WAYS YOU CAN SPOT FAKE NOTES

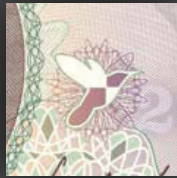

Security Thread

Series Dates

Blue Numbering
2006 +

See-through Feature

Large Textured
Value Numeral

FEEL THE DIFFERENCE

Real money is printed on special, textured paper.

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

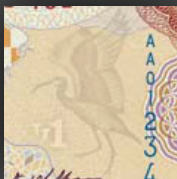

Printed lines and colours on real bills are sharp and clear.

SMELL THE DIFFERENCE

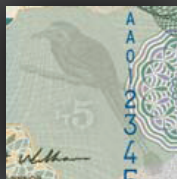

Real money has a distinctive and recognizable scent.

HEAR THE DIFFERENCE

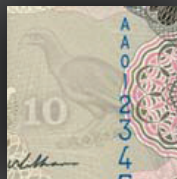

Our money is printed on high quality paper and sounds crisp.

$1 watermark

$5 watermark

$10 watermark

$20 watermark

$50 watermark

$100 watermark

Gold Foil

Duplex
Pattern

Gold Iridescent
Band

Coloured
Borders

COMPARE

If you think you've gotten a counterfeit bill, hold it side by side with another of the same denomination and series.

Hologram

Tactile Bars
$50 and new notes in circulation as of Nov. 2013

The Central Bank is the only local institution authorised to issue and redeem currency notes and coins.

Visit

www.central-bank.org.tt under banknotesandcoins

Notes bearing the signature of Governor Jwala Rambarran went into circulation in November 2013. All previous bills remain legal tender.

{ Feel free to display }